Next Steps For Next Week:

Read Matthew 5:1-12 In Matthew 5-7, Jesus defines the values of the Kingdom of Heaven. In the introduction to this message, Jesus shares some Kingdom values that oftentimes fly in the face of common sense. What are some of these values that you need to value more in your life?

Read Matthew 5:8 “Purity of heart” refers to living a life of integrity according to God’s values. We are generally more concerned about the “physical” condition of our hearts than we are about the “spiritual” condition of our hearts. What blessing does Jesus promise those who have pure hearts? How has that promise been revealed in your life?

Read 1 Samuel 16:1-13 A new king is about to be anointed to replace Saul. How does God direct the prophet Samuel to discover this new king? What kinds of things is Samuel looking for to determine the quality of the new king? What is God’s standard for the quality of the new king?

Read 1 Chronicles 28 David is preparing his son Solomon to take the reigns of the kingdom of Israel and complete the building of the holy Temple. What is the most important advice David gives to his son? What promises does David make to Solomon if his son follows his advice?

Read 1 Kings 4:29-34 Why was Solomon considered one of the wisest people to ever live? Where did his wisdom come from?

Read Proverbs 16 The book of Proverbs contains some of Solomon’s wisdom. How does chapter 16 speak to the integrity of a person’s heart?

Read Hebrews 4:12-16 How do verses 12-13 describe God’s “In-Sight?” How does this truth make you feel? If you stop at verse 13 you might sink into despair. Why do verses 14-16 give you comfort and hope?
